CAMERAS AND COMPUTERS FOR LIFE

If you have any old cameras or old computers, working or not, or parts, don't throw them away. The K C's have a program where these items are collected and taken to Fr. Dennis Port who has buyers for these objects and the money collected is then returned to the council for Pro Life. We will be collecting these items on Saturday, September 20th, at the K C Hall. Any items that you have are to be brought to the K C Hall on that date to the truck on the parking lot between 9:00 AM and Noon.

LADIES APPRECIATION DINNER

There were 36 ladies and 25 members in attendance for the Ladies Appreciation dinner on Saturday, August 23rd. All who attended, certainly enjoyed the meal and the fellowship. A BIG BIG THANK YOU to brothers Larry Buehler, Jim Giesmann, Jerry Schnyder, Mike Yerion, Mike Saali and wife Shirley.

CHARITY GOLF TOURNAMENT

The 12th Annual Charity Golf Classic was held on Friday August 8 at the Warrenton Golf Course. The golf chairmen gratefully thank all of our volunteer workers, the golfers, hole sponsors and contributors who again made this a great day. We were again blessed with a great workforce and great weather. (We must have a few brothers with some influence up there!) While there are still a couple of bills outstanding, it is clear that we will net a profit of more than $12,000, a new record. Also, we reached a new level of over $100,000 over 12 years of tournaments. Again, thanks to all! "It's never too early to think about next year...mark your calendar for the second Friday in August, which will be August 13, 2004."

STATE HORSESHOE TOURNAMENT

There were 12 men's and 4 ladies teams from the council who competed in the annual horseshoe tournament in De Soto, MO, on August 17th and 18th. There were no trophy winners in the men's division, however Jill Veness and Julie Molitor finished in 1st place in C class women's division. Our congratulations to Jill and Julie the winners.
